ABOUT

I'm a product designer at Young & Co where I work with companies, from start ups to corporations, to design products that are equally functional and delightful. I strive for simplicity, with a focus on balancing user needs and product essentials.

PROJECTS

Facebook

August 2015-Present

I currently work with the Ads Delivery Design team to create solutions to improve the advertiser's experience across all Facebook advertising tools.

Crew

January-November 2015

Worked on a messaging and productivity app that helps managers and teams communicate on the go. Designed iOS and Android mobile apps and a responsive website.

Google for Work

November 2014 – May 2015

Designed prototypes and internal tools for the Google for Work team. Platforms include native mobile and tablet apps and a responsive website.

Google Fiber

August-November 2014

Worked with the Fiber team to design mobile, tablet, and desktop apps to help Fiber customers to manage their network and account.
